Please Join us!

The Family Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association

is pleased to have the unique opportunity to present a full slate of great programming for its 2021 Annual Summer Meeting. The meeting will be a virtual meeting held Thursday and Friday, July 15 & 16.

There will be seven (7) total continuing education credits offered, both substantive and ethics, over the two days. The speakers in each of the programs include, experienced well known family law practitioners, as well as Judges and experts in a variety of fields.

I encourage, not only those who regularly attend our meetings, but also those who do not, whether you are a Section member or not, to take advantage of this opportunity. You will be educated and you will earn seven (7) continuing education credits, all while in the comfort and safety of your home or office.

Dave Schanbacher, Esq.

Chair, PBA Family Law Section
